STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, APRIL 9, 1909.

NO. 12

Lincoln County's New Court-House.

As it will look when Contractor Krueger turns over the keys to the County Officers.

John Z. Spoonamore,

Of Stanford, a consecrated church member, an exemplary christian gentleman, and a member of the official board for years, has answered roll call at Quarterly Conference the last time in the church militant and gone to take position in the church triumphant. He passed through the lights and shades, appointments and disappointments of 61 years, and while his bow was abiding in strength and his natural forces had not abated, that hidden uncertainty, death, came upon him so suddenly and swept him away so quickly, it appears that he has laid aside his farming business and gone away for a visit to another part of the country and will come back home in a short time.

It is a fact that men never recover from being boys, it matters not how old they may become; the boy crops out now and then, all the way down the lane of life. His later acts and deeds were evidence of a well ordered youth. He was reared (did not grow up unguarded) his habits were well chosen and his character above suspicion; a manly man, a firm friend, kind neighbor, faithful father and devoted husband. To him his church was full of meaning, every movement and occasion was interesting, he was all attention clear through. The last district conference he attended, less than one year ago, was a feast to him. He saw, heard and took all in. As a steward, he filled the office. In finance he was the embodiment of liberality; his money flowed into the treasury of the Lord for religious purposes. Among the last prayers at the family altar, he asked Father God to help him do more for Zion's onward and upward movement. He was an all round great man in his field of effort. His force of character was in self-government and quietude. He did not talk much, but lived more. His words multiplied many times on the thought of those who heard him speak.

His home was the product of a wise combination between himself and wife for religious and temporal purposes. They modeled after the Joshua resolution, "as for me and my house we will serve the Lord." He was a priest and his wife a daughter of Aaron, and the altar stood and the incense ascended. He was the father of 10 children; two babes are in the glory land with him, six sons and two daughters mourn his loss, but he left them a heritage more valuable than gold, a good name and a clean character.

But he is gone, we will never see another like him. God never repeats His work in the field of nature or on the high plane of grace. He did good service in his day, and for his generation, and left the world better than he found it. He used the world but did not abuse it. He used this world according to God's appointment, and that is, to get to that better and brighter world, and succeeded. Old death got his body only, and when the old earthly house fell, his soul escaped unhurt, and rose superior, to higher claims and lasting conditions in that land where the shadows never fall and sighs and sorrows do not enter and death is shut out forever.

Good-bye old friend, but not forever. I believe in my soul there is another life and a sweet land beyond the sun, where the loved and lost to our vision now, will appear and partings will be no more.

MIDDLEBURG.

Dr. W. L. Lowder has hung out his shingle at Bastin's mill on Knob Lick and will practice his profession.

Dr. William Sweeney, who is taking a graduating course at the Louisville Medical College, will return in June and locate here for the practice of medicine.

It seems to us that a letter mailed here Wednesday morning ought to reach Stanford in time for publication in Friday's issue of the I. J., but it frequently fails. There must be some miserably careless handling of mails somewhere along the route.

Miss Maude Hatter died at the home of her father, C. C. Hatter, near Yosemite, Saturday morning and was buried at Calvary church Sunday afternoon. Miss Hatter was a member of the Baptist church here and was said to be a most excellent young woman.

Elsie Gabbery is being favorably spoken of as an available candidate for either county superintendent or county clerk. He will likely be nominated by the democrats for one or the other of these offices. He is a moral, orderly, walking young man and qualified for any office in the county.

John Q. Rowland is making his home with J. C. Fogle on the Liberty pike. Welby Fair, of Liberty, was here Saturday. Editor Henry Thomas, of Liberty, attended church at Yosemite Sunday. Mrs. Helen Carter has returned from Louisville. Jason Lawhorn is able to be up, tho' he is looking somewhat worse. Mrs. Lawhorn is visiting her father, W. B. Cochran, in Louisville.

Mrs. J. L. Owens and Mrs. Laura Lee are endeavoring to organize a Ladies' Missionary Union at the Baptist church, the object of which is to promote the missionary interest among the members of the church. These good women should be encouraged in this good work as they are hard workers in the cause of our Master and their work in the church and Sunday School cannot be too highly estimated.

Your Hustonville correspondent seems to be quite easily touched, especially when one attempts to monkey, even in a joking way, with his high notions. That he really imagined he lived in a city was apparent from the claim he made but if the Moreland people can stand it we can, and will raise no further kick so long as he does not claim Middleburg, which would be quite as reasonable as his claim on Moreland.

On Cut Shin Creek, on the Perry-Leslie county border, Spied Spurlock was shot and instantly killed, and Robert Baker fatally wounded, it is alleged, by Joe Smith. Two mules were also killed. The killing, it is said, followed a quarrel.

A posse of 100 citizens, headed by county officers and all the ministers of Mayfield, marched on an alleged blind tiger in the east edge of the town. After breaking down the doors they confiscated 12 gallons of whisky and after a prayer by one of the ministers in the party, marched through the streets and visited a second place.

Pope Hill, a prominent attorney of Macon, was found dead in a law office at McRae, Ga., a revolver in his right hand. He came to McRae Sunday to appear in a case. He claimed he had received a threatening note and induced a hardware man to open his store and sell him a revolver. He was shot through the right eye and there were evidences of a struggle.

The case came to the Supreme Court on appeal by the commission from a decision of Judge Cochran, of the United States Circuit Court for the Eastern district of Kentucky.

Lair's bloodhounds were called to Duncan, Casey county, Wednesday, where a corn crib had been sawed into. Without a hitch the trail was followed about six miles to the home of the suspected party. There being no officers present, no arrest was made then, but will be at the proper time.

On Thursday afternoon the auxiliary to the C. W. B. M. met with Mrs. E. McCormack. A good attendance manifested great interest in the work. Mrs. Willis had prepared a good program consisting of a reading by Mrs. June Hocker, a vocal duet by Mrs. Nancy Riffe and Miss Kate Warriner, and the lesson ably presented by Mrs. Anna Riffe. The president then proposed to divide the membership into two sections, which met with unanimous approval, and the division was quickly and fairly made. It is hoped that the friendly rivalry between the two contesting sections will result in better work and a larger growth. Miss Kate Warriner will accept our thanks for aiding in the music and trust she will favor us again. Mrs. Riffe, being one of our members, we shall expect and hope to hear from her often. Mrs. Jennie Carpenter, president.

SHOULD a bill introduced by Representative Mason and already reported on favorably by the Texas house committee on liquor traffic, be enacted into a law by the State Assembly, what is captioned a bill to regulate the sale of liquor would, because of its drastic provisions, practically preclude the sale of whisky or malt beverages. According to the bill liquor shall not be sold in quantities less than a quart and must not be consumed on the premises of the place of sale; dealers in malt liquors must pay the same license as dealers in whisky, and the bill classes as felonies all violations of local option laws. The report of the committee on liquor traffic was unanimous and proponents of the measure declare they will have a large following in both branches of the Legislature.

THAT State courts, instead of Federal tribunals, should first be appealed to in testing laws passed by State Legislatures was the opinion of a majority of Justices of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals when a decision was handed down, which dissolved the injunction of the United States Court of Alabama, restraining the Alabama Railroad Commission from putting into effect certain passenger and freight rates in that State.

Almont Dare 3228.

A. S. H. R. Sired by Dignity Dare 1982, he by Chester Dare 10, he by Black Squirrel 58, he by King William 97, 1st dam Tossaway 478, also registered in Vol. 10, A. T. H. E. Sire by Abdallah Mambriro (3715), he by Almont (35) 2nd dam Lady Davis by Crit Davis, by Bourne Chief, 3rd dam Mattie S. by Foreign Light, by Foreigner, by Imported Glencoe; 4th dam Bettie C. by Cunningham's Copper-bottom; 5th dam by Imported Buzzard.

Almont Dare, so far as we are able to discover, is the first horse on record having to his credit the honor of defeating with his own progeny those of his great sire, Dignity Dare, doing so with his first crop of colts every time they came together. As an individual this is a very attractive horse, 16 hands high with lots of weight and finish, color, bay; action extremely high and fast. Shows 6 distinct saddle gait, all very fast and pleasant. A full brother to the great gelding, Nettleton, that sold at 4 years for $5,000 and to the great show mare, Foxy Dare, that won more premiums for the number of times than any mare ever sired by Dignity Dare.

Were it not for two splints coming on him he would easily have won the Saddle Championship. This horse is a result of a long and careful mating of the very best of the country afforded. His backing, in blood and individuality, is as strong as Gibraltar and his colts are rapidly proving him. See this horse and you will be well paid. He will make a fine sire for the future. 2 1/2 miles from Hustonville on the Hustonville & Liberty pike, at $15 to insure a living colt. Mares traded or bred elsewhere rendered season due at time of such transaction. Will also stand a mule jack at $5.

Grass furnished in abundance at $2 per mow. Personal attention to all stock but will not be responsible for accidents.

E. S. POWELL & SON, Hustonville, Ky.

Chester Peavine

DESCRIPTION AND BREEDING.—Four years old, 15 1/2 hands, a bright bay with best of bone, conformation and action. Sired by Rex Peavine 1796, he by Rex McDougal 585. First dam Miss Madison 468, by Chester Dare 10. Second dam by Peavine 85. Third dam by Stonewall Jackson 72.

NOTE.—This horse needs no introduction to the people of this county. He has been before the public since a two-year-old and his show record is known to all; suffice it to say, he was shown all over Kentucky last season by C. T. Sandidge and met defeat only a few times. He went around no horse, showed every week against all ages in sweepstake saddle rings and was never further back than second. He is a show horse under saddle. In harness he has won quite a number of prizes for his blood. He defeated all ages at Nicholasville in big roadster ring. You see from his breeding he has two crosses of Black Squirrel, two of Peavine, two of Stonewall Jackson. If you are looking for fashionable saddle horse blood, here it is. See him and see him do and you will breed to him.

Will serve a limited number of mares at $20 to insure a living colt.

ALL PEAVINE, Subject to Register.

This horse is three years old, a red sorrel, a good shod one and as good a runner as you will find anywhere. He is 15 1/2 hands high, was shown all over the State last year and was only defeated twice by two-year-olds—once under saddle and once in harness. Defeated both times by his half brothers. So you see he hasn't a bad record as a show horse. He is all his name implies, being sired by Rex Peavine 1796, 1st dam by Peavine 85; 2nd dam by Warren Harris' Denmark; 3rd dam by John Noelsy. If you are looking for heavy blood, here it is. He is permitted to serve limited number of mares at $20 to insure a living colt.

At same time and place will stand two good mule jacks at $8 to insure a living colt. These jacks need no advertising as they have made several seasons at this barn and every one knows their worth. Services for donkeys on all the above advertised stock when mare is sold, traded or bred to other stock. Due in all cases when colt is foaled.

R. S. SCUDDER, McKinney.

TRULY Dr. and Mrs. W. N. Craig are passing under the rod of affliction. During the holidays they were called on to give up a sweet little daughter and Monday afternoon a son was torn from them. The bright little fellow was just a year-old and was named for his father. He was ill for a very brief period but from the start the physicians gave out no promise of his recovery. The burial took place in Buffalo Cemetery at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon after a few remarks at the grave by Rev. J. L. Yandell. Every heart in this community goes out to Dr. and Mrs. Craig in their great trouble and many an earnest prayer has found its way to the throne of grace asking their deliverance from further sorrow.

MONDAY night was a gala occasion with the ancient and honorable lodge of Free and Accepted Masons. The object of the meeting was the conference of the sublime degree of Master Mason. Much interest was centered in the occasion, because of the fact that Mr. H. G. Sandifer, one of the best qualified Masons in the State, assisted or rather conducted the work with the aid of his splendidly drilled corps of co-workers. A magnificent supper was enjoyed at the Coffey House at six o'clock, where plates were laid for 75 guests. There were visitors from Danville, Lancaster, Mt. Vernon, Crab Orchard, Hustonville, McKinney, Preachersville and other adjacent points. Lincoln Lodge No. 60 works together in the spirit of fraternity, peace and harmony prevails and good is being done.

UNDER a reasonably good picture of Police Judge E. S. Gooch, the Somerset Journal says of the gentleman: "Judge Gooch is an original Lincoln countyite, but like most of the good timber which comes from that county, he has 'made good' during the many years he has resided in Somerset. For the past three years he has been on the bench a police judge of this city, and all have had fair chances to judge him as he is. Judge Gooch is a jolly good fellow and is very popular in this town and county."

WRIGHT.—Mrs. Joseph E. Wright died at her home in the Shelby City section of this county Monday after a brief illness. Her little baby, only a few hours old, died at the same time and they were laid to rest in the same coffin in the Junction City cemetery Wednesday afternoon after services at the Christian church at that place by Eld. J. Q. Montgomery. Deceased was Miss Nancy Reynolds, a sister of Mr. W. A. Reynolds, the Junction City druggist, and was a splendid young woman. For years she had been a consistent member of the Christian church and was greatly admired by a legion of friends. Much sympathy is felt for the husband, brother and sisters and others who knew and loved the Godly woman.

THE Ladies' Aid Society are busy today decorating the Christian church for the Easter recital and that insures the decorations will be as artistic as the music is inspiring.

PRESTON KING.

Reg. No. 3933, A. S. H. R.

Beautiful bay saddle stallion, 15.2 1/2 hands, foaled June 1895. His sire was the greatest show horse in Kentucky. He has balance, high action and the speed indicated by these blood lines. He has the long, thin neck, strong, short back, delicate head, well set heavy tail, flat bone, clean hock and good foot and eyes so characteristic of the get of the Danmarks. We feel that Preston King's speed, action and individuality must add to the merit of our Kentucky horses and we ask for him a liberal patronage. This richly bred young horse has all the qualities of a great sire: bone and style. His pre-eminent blood lines come to him through selected stock. Preston 922, his sire, was the greatest show horse of his day, winning at all the fairs and horse shows, taking the blue ribbon at St. Louis, winning $10,000. You see that Preston King cannot help but be a great saddle horse sire. His dam, Nelly 3023 was by VanMeter's King 730, tracing to Stonewall Jackson, and on his sire side to Washington Denmark 64.

He has some yearling and two-year-old colts in his brood to seed.

Pedigree.—Lincoln Squirrel was sired by Marion Squirrel, 98, he by Black Squirrel, 158, he by Black Eagle, 74, he by King William, 47, Marion Squirrel's first dam by Green Mountain; 2nd dam by Hughes' Edwin Forest; Lincoln Squirrel's first dam, Kate Messenger, by Messenger, full brother to Maude Messenger, record, 2:16; 2nd dam Maria Depauw by Mambrino Starlight, 1st dam by Lucy Thorn, 2:24; 3rd dam, Mollie Crow by Helm's Yorkshire. Will make the season of 1903 at my livery barn in Stanford at $25 to insure a living colt. Money due when colt is foaled or mare parted with.

Rheumatism

I have found a tried and tested cure for Rheumatism! Not a remedy that will straighten the distorted limbs of chronic cripples, nor turn bony growths back to flesh again. That is impossible. But I can now surely kill the pains and ridges of this deplorable disease. In Germany—with a Chemist in the City of Darmstadt—found the last ingredient with which Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy was made a perfected, dependable prescription. Without that last ingredient, I successfully treated many, many cases of Rheumatism; but now, at last, I uniformly cure all curable cases of this heretofore much dreaded disease. Those sad-like granular wastes, found in Rheumatic Blood, seem to dissolve and pass away under the action of this remedy as freely as does sugar when added to pure water. And then, when dissolved, the last ingredient with which Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy was made a perfectly pure, and the cause of Rheumatism is gone forever. There is now no real need—no actual excuse to suffer long without help. We sell, and in confidence recommend
